HTML > PDF

PDF requires you have special software to download the file. Not always available for browsers or mobile.

PDF is less safe, secure, and more likely to be suspected as malware.

PDF is less sharable. Sending an attachment is a lot harder than sending a URL.

PDF is harder to make accessible. An HTML page that is accessible at a basic level will still be a lot easier for a screen reader user than almost any non professionally produced PDF.